Constructing our shelter against the storms of oppression.

Sunday, January 14 — Services at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“Fire from the Ice: the Religious Humanism of the Grateful Dead”

Rev. Chip

The first of a three-part series, “Searching for the Sound: the Spirituality of the Grateful Dead,” this service will focus on the spiritual metaphors in the band’s lyrics. The other two services in the series will be January 28th and February 4th..

Sunday, January 21 — Services at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“Personal Divinity”

Sally Mitchell, Karen McCarthy, Tom Albrecht and friends

Unitarian Universalists believe in the inherent worth and dignity of every person. The Rev. Martin Luther King was influenced by this aspect of UUism’s rich history. Come explore this idea and its relevance to our lives today.

Sunday, January 28 — Services at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“Unbroken Chain: Individualism, Western Culture & the Grateful Dead”

Rev. Chip

The second of a three-part series. The evolution of Individualism, from the Enlightenment to UUs to the USA—through the lens of Grateful Dead lyrics.

Sunday, February 4 — Services at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“Move Me Brightly: the Inspirational Message of the Grateful Dead”

Rev. Chip, Vocal Ensemble

The last of a three-part series. Intergenerational. How the Grateful Dead lived its social conscience and still had fun. With a modified liturgy, for maximum gladness. Please wear your brightest colors!

Sunday, February 11 — Services at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“A Long Summer to Ripen”

Rev. Chip

Pastoral Care Advisory Group

“Love is the center of our church and service is the prayer.” This, I feel, is what defines pastoral care in our Congregation. We will continue to serve the needs of our congregants as we learn what the needs are. Should you have, or know of someone else who has a pastoral care need, I encourage you to contact and inform any one of the Pastoral Care Advisory Committee Members: John Schneider, 223-9299; Liz Bruning, 929-9808; Bonnie Mathias, 935-3715; Arline Howe, 947-9124; Mercedes Kimling, 223-7537; Joan Sheard, 922-1834; Kevin Tarsa, 922-8146.

DENOMINATIONAL AFFAIRS

The Solstice service last December 22nd went extremely well. Jeff Hawkins and a dozen other talented folks led us in a joyful and meaningful celebration of the return of the light. The service was deeply affecting for me, and many others reported that it moved them, too. There is clearly a desire in our community for more earth-centered rituals. If you would like to help plan and/or present any such services (equinoxes, solstices, cross-quarter days, monthly moon celebrations, etc.) in the future, please call or email Rev. Chip.

May 2007 bring us all health, joy, challenge and fulfillment!

With Spirit,

—the Rev. Chip Roush

MINDING THE STORE

Spirituality of the Grateful Dead

Rev. Chip will present a series of three sermons, called Searching for the Sound: the Spirituality of the Grateful Dead. The first two services will be Jan. 14th and 28th. The last service, on Feb. 4th, will use an inventive liturgy to emulate the spirit of a Grateful Dead show; children will attend this service, and everyone is invited to wear their brightest clothing.

New "Joys & Concerns" Format
As part of our ongoing experiment to find the best format for "Joys and Concerns," we will be announcing them from the pulpit in January and February. Please print the name and reason on the provided cards BEFORE each service, so they can be read during the service. There will also be a box to check on the card if the joy/concern is private—to share the information with the Pastoral Care Team, but not declare it publicly to the congregation.

DRE Search Continues

There is a job opening for the Director of Religious Education. This position is currently part-time at 20 hours per week. The position allows for prorated access to health, disability, and dental benefits through UUCGT. There is a possibility that the job could become full-time in the future. Please contact the UUCGT office for more information about the job description and qualifications, and to get an application. Applications should be submitted no later than January 12th, 2007. You may also contact any member of the DRE Search Committee: Dave Halsted at 223-7277, Gail Trill at 938-1333, or Kathy Tack at 267-5125. Thank you!

—Kathy Tack

Toys

Dolls, trucks, baby toys, art materials and other assorted gifts for infants through teens were carefully chosen and wrapped by UUs aged 2 through 16, their parents, and other volunteers on Dec. 2. Thanks to all who contributed money, time, energy and ideas to help make this holiday special for the children at the Women's Resource Center shelter. A special thanks to Karen Bobay at Children's World who, as always, provided a discount and donated several toys as well. And to everyone who contributed gifts for the children to give to their mothers.

...From our Friends
As we look back upon the events of the last year, we have so much to be grateful for, including the constant support, guidance, and resources from both UUA and Heartland. This past Autumn, several members of our congregation attended (with your financial support and a very generous subsidy from our friends at UUA/Heartland), a "Raising the Roof" conference. This conference focused on those factors that enable healthy growth in congregations. Barb Bloomer and John Hoffman, two of these attendees, treated your Board to a summary of the conference, and invited us to take a survey of where we believed the congregation was on many indicators of healthy growth. Once our results were tallied, Barb and John returned to review them with us. The overall findings of this Board survey are that we appear to be well-positioned for positive and healthy growth.

Whether or not we as individuals desire growth for this religious community, we seem to be a very healthy congregation, with many strengths. It was terrific to hear this great news, and to be able to tap into the resources our UUA/Heartland friends offered us to actually prove how healthy, strong, and ready we are! These friends offer many conferences, workshops, and seminars for clergy, laity, youth, and RE leaders. I invite you to check out their many offerings at www.heartlanduu.org, and see all they have to offer! It is great to have friends like these, and I wonder if we could ever thank them enough!

MESSAGE from the PRESIDENT

I am writing this the evening of December 24, having attended the morning meditative service. For me, this service provided an opportunity for “internal peace making” in a way that was refreshingly different from the past Christmas Eve services held in the dark and cold. I know I’m not the only one who remembers services at midnight where one shivered to keep warm both inside AND outside the church!

After our celebrations of Solstice on December 22 and the three services of the 24th...we are ready to rest. However, the New Year is almost upon us, and work for the Board begins January 12 when we go into retreat in order to focus our energies on the goals for 2007. We need to determine the important policy and direction issues for the new year and to identify who is accountable for what and for when.

Leaders are only as effective as their followers. I am asking you, as a member of the congregation, to give input to the Board via phone call, email, or a private conversation. Share your vision with us prior to January 12.

Do you envision a new building this year?

Do you envision the congregation changing in size?

What kind of religious education program would best serve our youth?

Do we want to pool our energies and have ONE major community outreach program?

How can we have group goals in a way that is respectful of personal freedom?

Do you have any thoughts on what we are doing right?

The Board welcomes your energy, your enthusiasm, and your ideas. “Keep those cards and letters coming!”

—Joan Sheard

UU Trivia

The first person to email Rev. Chip (jchpr@yahoo.com) with the answer to this trivia question will win a gift certificate to Horizon Books, and will have his or her name published in our next Beacon.

This Unitarian woman wrote one of the first feminist texts, in 1792. Unfortunately, she did not live to read her daughter’s novel, which was subtitled The Modern Prometheus.

Congratulations to Richard Miller, for his right answer last month: the Unitarian Universalist who used his television scripts to advocate for social responsibility was Rod Serling.

ALL ABOUT US

We Hold In Our Hearts:

♥ Barbara Brokaw who has actually attended a couple early services recently. She is back into a series of treatments but has such a wonderful spirit that it is a joy to talk to her. One of her sons, Kevin, will be married on Jan. 13th at his fiancé’s church, which is Traverse Bay Methodist, and Barb can be there.

♥ Shirlee Davidson who is ill and now is staying at her daughter’s home here in Traverse City. Cards and notes to her address in the UU Directory will reach her all right.

♥ Liz Norris as she goes to live with family in Toronto, Canada. We wish her our very best. An address is c/o Carolyn Dodd, 820 Manning Ave., Toronto M6G2W8.

We Are Mindful Of:

- Beecy Fraser who resides at the Pavilions
- Ruth Gamble who resides at the Inverness
- Joan Laird who resides at her home in Cedar Creek Commons

- Richard Myer who resides in his home on Eighth St.

...and we continue to keep in touch and hope you do also.

My own recent surgery on November 29th. This column gives me a perfect venue in which to thank all of you who called me, sent cards, flowers, food and who visited me. I was so grateful to have so many wonderful expressions of caring. It was truly a pastoral care experience and I was on the other end of it all. You know what - it really does work! I know I healed faster for it all. Thank you all.

An “Of Interest” Announcement

Two of our members were published in the Traverse Area District Library’s “Poets’ Night Out” booklet: Elizabeth Norris’s poem, “Mandolin,” and Max OldBear’s, “Kneeling at the Window.” Many of the poems were read at the TADL Tenth Annual Poetry Night Out on November 26. Elizabeth’s won a prize! I have not heard yet if Max’s did too. It is wonderful to know we have such talented folks amongst us! Thank you for sharing with us and representing UU so well!

ADULT PROGRAMS AND EVENTS

Roots

The Rev. Chip Roush has scheduled a Roots course for this winter. Roots is described as an “exploration of the Free Church Tradition”; “First step towards involvement in a community dedicated to the preservation of religious freedom.” The four-session course introduces the ideas, history and people that make up the Free Church Tradition as it is manifested in Unitarian Universalism. The course schedule is Wednesday, January 17th & 24th, and February 7th and 21st at 7 PM (following the Wednesday night supper). The roots course is open to everyone interested in learning more about UU heritage, and we strongly encourage newer members and those in our Congregation who are considering membership to attend. A sign-up sheet will be at the Welcome Table. For additional information talk with Rev. Roush or one of the “Ask Me” Membership Committee members.

Adult Religious Learning

The Adult Religious Learning group finished their study of “Being Liberal in an Illiberal Age”—all went well. It was, actually—exciting—and very informative and self-searching. The members came away with a new (or at least a better grounded) sense of their religiosity and increased knowledge in Unitarianism. The members are looking forward to the next course offering being facilitated by Rev Chip—Bible Study. Please refer the article in this edition of The Beacon. On a personal note—I got a tremendous feeling of enlightenment and enjoyment from attending the meetings and just talking about what we feel about religion and faith and spirituality.

Bible Study

UUCGT will be holding a Bible study class starting in January. This class—a four-session course—will be held on Sunday Jan. 14 & 28 and Feb. 11 & 25, at 1:00 PM. The class is available to anyone wanting to learn more about the Bible. The text to be used will be “Understanding the Bible: An Introduction for Skeptics, Seekers, and Religious Liberals” by John Buehrens. The book will be offered through the UUCGT at cost plus shipping or is available from any bookstore. There will be a limit to the number of attendees so early sign-up is encouraged. Please call the UUCGT office at (231) 947-3117 to get your name on the list.

Secular Friends and Family

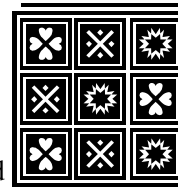

There have been several people interested in attending a Secular Friends and Family meeting for those individuals being affected by an addict or alcoholic environment, i.e., someone close to them, usually a family member, is abusing either drugs or alcohol.

Unfortunately, there is currently NO meeting set up for family members other than Alanon, a 12-step, semi-religious program. However, as the need is evident, I will help anyone willing to start one of these secular meetings. Please see or call me at 946-8680.

Quilting

UU quilters will meet on Wednesdays January 10 and 24 in the social hall from 1 - 4. Materials supplied. No experience necessary. Quilts for UU fundraisers. For more info contact Bonnie Mathias or Kathy Prentice.

Men’s Group

The Men’s Group will meet for dinner and conversation on Monday January 8, 6:00 PM at the South City Limits restaurant. Discussion topic is still open but is always interesting. Join us!

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND ACTION

Many UUsers have pitched in and helped with the Homeless in 2006. Tuesday noon meals have continued to be a big and important support to the Homeless. We also now have helped several times at the overnight shelter, “Safe Harbor.” Several members provided the meal on election night Nov. 7. In error, I left out Ann Dressel’s name. Sorry.

During the week of December 9 thru 16, the “Safe Harbor” program had a crisis and called us to help. Norene Borgeld and I provided food, served, and cleaned up one evening. Mary Ann Force and Mary Kiner brought entrees for another meal. The Rich/Gerstle family, from Ahavat Shalom Congregation, took an evening providing the meal, serving, and cleaning up. Craig Richard was the overnight chaperone on a night—a very needed job with lots of responsibility. THANK YOU ALL VERY MUCH!! We hope that others will also be able to help when we are called again.

There will be training regarding the rules and suggestions for “Safe Harbor.” This training will take place on Sunday, Jan 7, 4 PM, at Rev. Nye’s Presbyterian Church off Airport Access Rd. Please plan to attend if you can. Even if you don’t attend, we can use your help. Please let me know if you are interested and able to help in the future. Thank you!

UU Video Showings

On Friday evening Jan. 26, 7 PM at the UU, we will show a video about the “Invisible Mexicans.” These are the ones who have no home, no rights, live in the hidden canyons of California, and work for wealthy landowners near by. Come and learn more about this real, unrecognized, and unsolved problem. Donations are expected, please, to cover costs. Hope to see you there!

At the Supper at Six on Jan. 31, I will show some slides and talk about my recent trip to Israel and Palestine, “Pain in the Land of Love.” Social time at 5:30, $5 for supper. Please call 929-2798 if you plan to attend supper. Program begins at 7:00.

On Monday, Feb 5, at 7 PM, at the Traverse Area District Library on Woodmere Avenue, I will be part of a discussion panel concerning the Middle East. Please come and add to our discussion. Look forward to seeing you. Thanks!

From your Minister of Music

As the new year begins, I will be arriving in Chicago for one month of study at Meadville Lombard Theological School, one of two Unitarian Universalist Seminaries in the U.S. This is the first of several Januarys in Chicago for me, en route to a Master of Divinity degree.

I have been reading the texts for three classes—Unitarian Universalist History, Theology and Globalization, and Justice, Ministry & Advocacy—all fall and very much look forward to live classes and conversations with faculty and fellow students.

My head swirls with both information and questions/reflections regarding application: What does this new knowledge and insight mean for my living, my spirituality, my vocation and my work within the congregation? It is all both thrilling and daunting.

I am excited about sharing and deepening my learning with you upon return, and will, in the meantime, hope to stay steeped in the seminary experience while in Chicago. But for emergencies, I will try not to let my thoughts get drawn back into my task lists here at home, and will not be answering e-mails etc. Chip and I will have contact via phone each week and I'll ask Paul to filter phone calls for me. Please let one of them know if there is something important you want me to know.

Nothing like starting the new year with such a new journey! Thank you for your support and encouragement. I enter this time of study with all of you and this congregation's journey in my mind and heart.

And...when you see that my office desk is totally empty, fear not. I have simply taken things home so that office furniture can be moved in anticipation of new carpet.

May your new year begin with rich possibilities as well, ...and much learning, conversation and reflection.

Yours,

Rev. Kevin Tarsa

YOUTH AND CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Christmas Pageant 2006

Just three weeks ago, our children presented "Would You Like to Hold the Baby?" What a treat to have witnessed our children's thespian gifts! Again, the event would not have taken place if it were not for John Noonan and Kevin Tarsa and their commitment, and the many talents they brought, to making the pageant happen. Special kudos go to Joyce Braeuninger for her behind-the-scenes wrangling of our dynamic angelic duo. I've heard various highly amusing reports of that 'Star Wars' portion of the pageant, which to me demonstrated the timelessness of the story of Jesus' birth, and the delightful, unbridled creativity and enthusiasm little ones bring to life.

Many, Many Thanks

Our children would not be safely engaged in religious education were it not for the dedication of our RE volunteer teachers. When you see them, please thank Anna Bachman, Katy Bean-Larson, Joyce Braeuninger, Ron Chao, Mary Cheney, David Halperin, Scott Huggins and Emma McCarthy-Stone.

Also, thank you and a warm welcome to those among us who answered the Seussical siren call to volunteer as RE teachers. You are in for a swell time with our children! I will contact you soon about orientation, and when and how you have chosen to help.

"Feed me. Feed me, I'm hungry! Feed me now!!"

Beginning Sunday, January 7, we need snacks—healthy snacks—for our children in RE. Ten families generously have indicated on their RE enrollment forms that they are willing to help with snacks for the program. Rather than cookies, please consider fresh fruit, crackers, cheese, pretzels, fruit juices (Old Orchard brand is free of high fructose corn syrup). Anything that is not sugar or transfat-laden is good.

Teaching what we most need to learn

Ahem. Yes. Well, obviously, I needed to learn to 'practice what I preach' to the children. Being a UU, I do try not to preach—but I have, on a number of occasions, admonished our children to not climb on or to get down from the stacked chairs in the social hall. Now I'm a walking—no, make that hobbling—example of why we don't climb (let alone stand) upon those stacked chairs. The adage that "We teach best by example" implies good example. Heh heh. May our children learn from my poor example.

Tenure: Questions and Confusion

I fear I did not effectively communicate to the congregation as a whole that I would continue as Interim DRE through the end of January 2007. I apologize for any confusion this may have caused. Please be assured that I will stay on until someone is hired to fill the DRE position, whether that comes before or after the end of this month. What is best for the children and our Religious Education program is paramount. Again, thank you everyone for your continued patience and support.

With very best wishes and hopes for this New Year,

*—Gretchen Kronk
