

It was a happy day when the Ministerial Search Team learned that Alex Jensen, our choice for ministerial candidate, also chose us, UUCGT! As shown here, it was with mutual feelings of relief and joy that we met with Alex to officially recognize his candidacy.

Our choice of Alex was based on qualities the congregation expressed in conversations and a survey. We spoke with him at length during intensive interview sessions and got to know him more personally during casual time together via Zoom. We were impressed by his warmth, his maturity, and the depth of his commitment to Unitarian Universalism and to entering a shared ministry with potential for a long-term partnership. His life experiences and his many references, which were unfailingly glowing, helped us put aside any trepidation we might have had regarding his youth.

After Candidate Week, May 8 – 16, all members will have had ample opportunities to get to know Alex Jensen so they can be prepared for the vote to call.
